PREMIUMS/CANCELLATION/REINSTATEMENT

THP provides insurance coverage in return for premium payment. The first premium is due on the Issue/Effective Date. Future premiums are due on the first of each month.

Premium Changes. Since your benefits are tied to Medicare's deductible amounts, coinsurance amounts, copayment amounts and limits, premium and benefit changes are expected to occur each January. The reinstated policy shall cover only loss resulting from such accidental injury as may be sustained after the date of reinstatement and loss due to such sickness as may begin more than ten days after such date. In all other respects THP and You shall have the same rights thereunder as they had under this policy immediately before the due date of the defaulted premium, subject to any provisions indorsed hereon or attached hereto in connection with the reinstatement. Any premium accepted in connection with a reinstatement shall be applied to a period for which premium has not been previously paid, but not to any period more than sixty days prior to the date of reinstatement. Your Policy will be reinstated upon THP's approval of the application.

Cancellation by You. You may cancel this Policy at any time by written notice delivered or mailed to THP, effective upon receipt or any later date specified in the notice. No statement you make can be used in a contest unless it is in writing and signed by you.

No claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in this Policy) commencing after two years from the date of issue of this Policy shall be reduced or denied on the ground that a disease or physical condition not excluded from coverage by name or specific description effective on the date of loss had existed prior to the effective date of coverage of this Policy.

In any event, the proof required must be given no later than one (1) year from the time specified unless you were legally unable to do so.
