The Health Plan Hosts Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony at New Wheeling Headquarters

Wheeling, W.Va. – The Health Plan (THP) announced they will hold a ribbon-cutting ceremony for its newly-completed 53,000-square-foot office in Wheeling, WV on Thursday, February 8 at 10 a.m. The ceremony marks the completion of a two-year project to relocate its corporate headquarters back to West Virginia.

“This is our homecoming,” said Jim Pennington, President and CEO of The Health Plan. “We’re thankful to the State of West Virginia, the City of Wheeling, and the Regional Economic Development for their roles in helping make this moment possible.”

Pennington, along with Governor Jim Justice, Mayor Glenn Elliott, former mayors Andy McKenzie and Nick Sparachane and THP board members will facilitate the ceremony on the Market Street side entrance of the new building.
